New Reference Materials is an annotated list of reference sources (print, microfiche and electronic) received for the Doe and Moffitt reference collections. Titles are listed alphabetically by subject category and alphabetically by author, or title if no author is available, within each category. Entries include the bibliographic citation, a brief description of the content, library location and call number.

The New Reference Materials list is made available on an irregular basis. Annotations are written by Steve Mendoza smendoza@library.berkeley.edu. Questions regarding reference collections may be sent to Myrtis Cochran mcochran@library.berkeley.edu

March/April 2004

Area Studies (countries of the world)

Chng, Kim See.
Bibliography of Southeast Asia : a decade of selected social science publications in the English language, 1990-2000

The Bibliography of Southeast Asia contains “nearly 6,500 titles on a vast array of topics from agriculture to urbanization, including the Vietnam and other wars, with a broad range on economics and a list of periodicals.” Countries covered include Brunei, Cambodia, East Timor, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, and Vietnam. Includes an extensive subject index and name index.

Stockwin, J. A. A. (James Arthur Ainscow)
Dictionary of the modern politics of Japan

Doe Refe JQ1605.S86 2003

This reference book covers the politics of Japan since the time around the Japanese surrender in 1945. An introductory essay begins the volume along with another essay dealing with various theories of Japanese politics. Articles provide citations for further readings which are fully referenced in the bibliography. A short Japanese language bibliography is given along with a general subject index.

Türkischer biographischer Index = Turkish biographical index / bearbeitet von: Jutta R.M. Cikar.

Doe Refe CT1902.T87 2004 Biographies
“In its three volumes, the Turkish Biographical Index (TBI) offers an alphabetically structured index of the 89,492 individuals whose biographies are contained in the Turkish Biographical Archive (TBA)... (Microfiche 27198 DREF) The 437 microfiches of the TBA consist of facsimile reprints of approximately 128,000 entries from the 157 biographical reference works published between 1836 and 2001, comprising 266 volumes.”

Williams, Dawn P., 1961-
Who's who in Black Canada : Black success and Black excellence in Canada : a contemporary directory

Doe Refe  CT283.W55 2002  Biographies

A chronology of prominent Black Canadians. Entries give short biographies, career highlights, membership in organizations, honors, works, role models, personal mottos, and contact information where available. Many entries are only in French. Indexing includes names by province and by primary activity.

Fine Arts

Doe Refe  NA736.A47 2004  Biographies

“African American Architects, a biographical dictionary, 1865-1945 is a single-volume reference work for architectural historians, historic preservationists, architects, historians, curators, students, and the general public seeking to provide reliable information on the late nineteenth and early twentieth century African American architects. The Dictionary is composed of 168 entries..., [which] are arranged alphabetically, internally cross-referenced, and supplemented by photographs of architects and buildings they designed. The Dictionary includes a building list and, whenever possible, a selected bibliography for each architect.” Includes a general bibliography and general index, as well as a building list sorted by state.

Lent, John A.
Comic art of Europe through 2000 : an international

This reference set, an update to the 1994 edition, provides bibliographic reference to the comic art of Europe. There are no annotations, nor introductory essays, but there is a brief preface. The first section provides references to global and comparative perspectives. Subsequent sections deal with individual countries, providing citations for general references, general sources, artistic and technical aspects, cartooning and cartoons, cartoonists and their works, historical aspects, annotations, caricature and satirical drawings, comic books, comic strips, and political cartoons. Also includes a general subject index.

Wellington, Jean Susorney.
Dictionary of bibliographic abbreviations found in the scholarship of classical studies and related... Rev. and expanded ed.

Doe Refe  PA99.W44 2003 Abbreviations
This reference book is a key to over four thousand four hundred abbreviations used in the scholarly literature in the areas of Classical and Byzantine studies, including Ancient Egyptian and Near Eastern studies, biblical studies and late antique/early medieval studies. Most of the entries refer to titles of journals, monographic series, societies, organizations and individuals.

General works

The best books for university libraries. 1st ed.

Doe Refe Z1035.B547 2002 v.1-10

The best books for university libraries : CD-ROM & sample of the

Doe Refe Z1035.B547 2003 compu/d

This ten volume reference work was created to aid in collection development by reflecting the large increase in the publication of academic titles in the last two decades. From a database of books collected from journals, bibliographies and reference books, a panel of librarians and subject specialists made recommendations for the best books for undergraduate or college libraries to obtain. Each section of this set is arranged by LC Classification. Generally, only books are included with some minor attention to annual reviews and to multi-volume sets. Each volume also includes an author and title index. This set is also available in CDROM format with a sample of the best books database comparison.

Brenner, Morgan G.
The encyclopedia of college & university name histories

Doe Refe L901.B82 2003

This reference source contains the name histories of over thirteen hundred four-year colleges and universities in the United States. The original name and location is given along with associated name changes, mergers, dissolutions and location changes that may have occurred. An index to former names is also given.

Electronic location: Restricted to UCB IP addresses.
http://www.dekker.com/servlet/product/productid/E-ELIS

Doe Refe Z1006.E57 2003 v.1-4

A four volume compilation of articles on all manner of subjects dealing with libraries and information science. While attempting an international scope, the articles emphasize librarianship in the United States and Western Europe. Recent trends and technologies are represented as well as traditional subjects, but change is apparent as may noted by the article entitled “The Future of Primary Records.” Each article provides references and suggestions for further reading. Also includes a subject index. An online version of this reference set is available to UCB users.

Government Information and Political Science
The encyclopedia of third parties in America / edited by Immanuel Ness and James Ciment

Doe Refe JK2261.E474 2000 v.1-3

This three volume reference work outlines the history of third party politics in the United States. Part one gives general essays on third parties in various historical periods. Part two gives maps that display national electoral vote percentages by counties. Part three provides articles on each third party. Part four gives biographies of major third party figures. Also includes a glossary, bibliography, subject index, biographical index and geographical index.

Hoffman, Kathryn.
Status and trends in the education of Blacks
Electronic location:
http://purl.access.gpo.gov/GPO/LPS38554

Doe Refe LC2717.H64 2003 Govt/Stat

Status and trends in the education of Hispanics
Electronic location:
http://purl.access.gpo.gov/GPO/LPS32922

Doe Refe LC2669.L56 2003 Govt/Stat

These two reference volumes provide all manner of statistics related to the education of Blacks and Hispanics respectively. First demographic overviews are given. Then statistics are given for primary, elementary, and secondary education followed by post secondary education and the outcomes of education. Numerous supplementary tables provide comparative data. These works also provides short bibliographies. Both reference sources are also freely available online.

Llagas, Charmaine.
Moore, John Leo, 1927-
Elections A to Z / John L. Moore. 2nd ed.

This reference volume provides short articles on everything related to elections in American politics. This second edition updates the 1999 edition, reflecting major events that have since occurred, such as the “tumultuous” 2000 presidential election, the al-Qaeda September 11, 2001 attacks, the loss of space shuttle Columbia in 2003 and the ongoing wars in Afghanistan and Iraq – all influences on the democratic process. Several appendices provide data on various elections. Also includes a bibliography and subject index.

Smith, W. Thomas.
Encyclopedia of the Central Intelligence Agency

Doe Refe UB251.U5.S63 2003
This reference source on the Central Intelligence Agency provides profiles of major figures of the CIA, definitions of CIA terms and jargon, descriptions of subagencies, and descriptions of historical events related to the history of the CIA. Appendices include a glossary of acronyms, abbreviations and code names, and an organizational chart. Also includes a bibliography and subject index.

Doe Refe JK404.U58 Govt/Stat 2004-

A part of the set of budget documents from the Office of Management and Budget, the "Performance and Management, Assessments, Budget of the United States Government, Fiscal year… contains evaluation and analyses of programs and management at federal departments and agencies.” This source is also freely available online.

History

Campbell, Gordon, 1944-

Doe Refe CB361.C27 2003
Moffitt Refe CB361.C27 2003

This volume is a reference work covering the years from about 1419 through 1618, marking the two Defenestrations of Prague. "The geographical centre of the volume consists of the countries whose cultures were touched in significant measure by the revival of classical learning, and so extends to nearly all early modern Europe, including eastern and central Europe."
Includes a thematic index, tables of ruling houses, and a list of place names in imprints. Articles include references and citations for further reading.

Doe Refe DP56.D55 2002

An encyclopedia, in Spanish, of Spanish and Latin American history. Richly illustrated with portraits, art, and documents. Articles give references for further reading.

Buell, Paul D.

The history of the Mongol Empire is covered from the twelfth through the eighteenth centuries. Articles describe the people, places, events and concepts on this topic. Also includes an extensive biography.
Rosenthal, Joel Thomas, 1934-
Late medieval England (1377-1485) : a bibliography of historical scholarship, 1990-1999

This bibliography of Late medieval English history provides very brief annotations. The volume is divided into several categories: edited volumes and collected papers, bibliographies, review articles, reference studies, history, women, the peasantry, church and religion, and the fine arts. Includes an index of authors and editors.

Lobban, Richard.
Historical dictionary of ancient and medieval Nubia

Doe Refe DT159.6.N83.L63 2004

“The name “Nubia” is the simplest term to define the region that lies between Aswan in modern Egypt at the First Cataract (rapids) on the Nile River and the confluence of the White and Blue Nile just above the Sixth Cataract.” This reference dictionary provides articles on the people, places, events and concepts that make up the ancient and medieval history of Nubia. Also includes an extensive bibliography.

Macri, Martha J.
The new catalog of Maya hieroglyphs
Norman : University of Oklahoma Press, c2003

Doe Refe F1435.3.W75.M33 2003 Dictionaries

“This work is the first of two volumes describing the graphemes (the distinctive signs) of the Maya script. The present volume contains the graphemes found in the texts from the Classic period, approximately 150-900 CE… The second volume of the New Catalog (in preparation) describes the graphemes found in the four Maya codices. These Maya books date from later periods and represent graphic and linguistic styles that differ from the script of the Classic period.”

Language (Grammars, dictionaries)

Das Bertelsmann Lexikon in 24 Banden / [herausgegeben vom Lexikographischen Institut, Munchen ; Redaktionsleitung, Wolf ... Stuttgart : Verlagshaus Stuttgart, c1994-c1996.

This twenty-four volume German language encyclopedia is a comprehensive reference source for German language research. Richly illustrated with maps, diagrams, art, with articles on personalities, flora and fauna of the German language world.

Doe Refe PC4640.O94 2003 Dictionaries
This third edition to the Oxford Spanish dictionary has been expanded with approximately ten thousand updates. Recent research into terminology and language, as well as improved search tools on the internet have contributed to the updates. A new color layout is being used along with the addition of hundreds of cultural notes and grammar and usage notes.

Literature (English, Comparative Literature)

Murfin, Ross C.
The Bedford glossary of critical and literary terms / 2nd ed.

Doe Refe PNN44.5.M86 2003

This second edition of the Bedford glossary of critical and literary terms provides over seventy newly defined terms for a total of more than eight hundred terms. Terms are defined with various examples given from literature and popular culture. All terms with their own articles are in bold. Many new illustrative examples are also given. Also includes an index of authors and titles.

Religious Studies and Philosophy

Encyclopedia of religious freedom / Catharine Cookson, editor.

Doe Refe BV741.E47 2003
Moffitt Refe BV741.E47 2003

This is the fourth volume in the Routledge encyclopedias of religion and society series. Articles contained in this work deal with various aspects of religious freedom: US and world history, world religions, major issues, minority groups and their rights and key documents. Articles have see also references and lists for further reading. Also includes a general index.

Encyclopedia of science and religion / J. Wentzel Vrede van Huyssteen, editor in chief.

Doe Refe BL240.3.E53 2003

“Not only does this Encyclopedia offer a massive amount of interdisciplinary and interreligious information, but it mirrors one of the most fascinating stories of our time: the emergence of an extensive international discussion among scientists of various specializations, philosophers of nearly all persuasions, and religious thinkers from all the major world religions.” The articles cover many different subcategories: behavioral studies and human sciences, biographies, cognitive science and neuroscience, computer science and information technology, evolution, feminism and women, genetics, life sciences, mathematics, medicine, method, philosophy, physical sciences, religions, technology, and theology and religious thought. Articles contain see also references and short bibliographies. Also included is an annotated bibliography and an extensive general index.

Sciences

Cardarelli, Francois, 1966-
Encyclopaedia of scientific units, weights, and measures : their SI equivalences and origins

Doe Refe  QC94.C295 2003

“This practical manual aims to be the most comprehensive work on the subject of unit conversion. It contains more than 20,000 precise conversion factors, and around 5000 definitions of the units themselves. The units included, and their conversions, are grouped into imperial and US units, conventional metric units, older or out-of-date units, ancient units, and SI units. The subject areas involved are: pure and applied science, technology, medicine, and economics.” After a brief introduction there is an essay covering the history of the international system of units. Extensive tables describe the various historic systems of weights and measures, followed by extensive conversion tables. Also includes a short bibliography.

Social sciences

Biographical dictionary of social and cultural anthropology / edited by Vered Amit.

Doe Refe  GN20.B56 2004  Biographies

Biographies on major figures for the four major fields of anthropology: cultural anthropology, linguistics, archaeology, and physical or biological anthropology. Educational degrees are listed for individuals as well as their fieldwork and key publications. Includes suggestions for further reading. Indices are by area of interest, names and concepts.

Colonialism : an international, social, cultural, and political encyclopedia / Melvin E. Page, general editor
Santa Barbara, Calif. : ABC-CLIO, c2003.

Doe Refe  HV22.C59 2003 v.1-3

A three volume reference set chronicling five hundred years of colonialism. Articles cover the broad spectrum of colonialism, politics, history, countries, territories past and present, key personalities and concepts. The third volume is comprised of documents and essay literature. Articles provide see also references and suggestions for further reading. Gives chronologies for the major colonial powers. Also includes a general index.

Dictionary of American family names / Patrick Hanks, editor.

Doe Refe  CS2485.D53 2003 v.1-3

“The Dictionary of American family names is the first attempt to explain the history and origin of the 70,000 most frequent family names in the United States, together with some rare names that are of historical or etymological importance. Culled from an 88.7 million-name sample, any surname with a frequency above 100 generally is listed. The general introduction discusses the structure of the DAFN entries, spellings of family names, feminism and family name, origin of family names, typology and genealogical resources. Further short articles discuss the origin of surnames form different languages and cultures.
This four volume reference set provides articles on all manner of subjects dealing with international media and communication, reflecting the "critical juncture in the global transition from an Industrial Society to an Information Society." Countries throughout the world are represented. Each article begins with a glossary of key words and ends with a list of related articles and a brief bibliography. Also includes an extensive subject index.

This reference set "provides the reader with entries covering the salient theories, issues and concepts within the broad fields of public administration and public policy. Each entry is a coherent article, rather than a short paragraph." Each article provides a list of references. Also includes a general index.

This is a companion volume to the International Foundation Directory, also from Europa Publications. "This new Directory contains information on the growing area of corporate philanthropy world-wide and aims, through detailing company giving as well as corporate trusts and foundations, to give a global overview of the current state of corporate giving and its relation to the third sector... Information for each company or organization includes, where available, details of the organization, its philanthropic activities, geographical area of activity, restrictions on giving, publications, principle staff, trustees, and contact information, including telephone, fax, internet, and email."

A companion to Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1980-1994, this reference book continues in coverage with annotated bibliographies of Americans of color through 2000. The extensive index provides access to names, subjects, and represented ethnic groups.

“This is the first encyclopedia on ‘Men and masculinities.’ As such, it both celebrates the establishment of a new field of study and hopes to participate in the inauguration of a new phase of that field of inquiry.” The essays in this two-volume reference work reflect all aspects of this new field. Articles include see also references and short bibliographies for further reading. Also includes an extensive general index.

The Sage encyclopedia of social science research methods / Michael S. Lewis-Beck, Alan Bryman, Tim Futing Liao, editors.

Doe Refe  H62.S34 2004 v.1-3

“This encyclopedia brings together, in one place, authoritative essays on virtually all social science method topics, both quantitative and qualitative.” Beyond methods, many essays define and explain the underlying theories in social science. Articles contain references for further reading. Each of the three volumes also include an extensive bibliographies. This reference set is described as the first of its kind.

Theater, Dance and Performance Studies

“The Encyclopedia of Latin American Theater presents the history of the theater of Latin America as well as the history of the Nuyorican and Chicano theaters of the United States. It contains entries describing the most important playwrights, independent theaters, and cultural movements in Latin American Theater.” Articles are grouped by country and headed by an introductory essay for that country. Individuals’ works are listed along with a bibliography of literary criticism. Also includes a brief general bibliography and a general index.

The Museum of Broadcast Communications encyclopedia of radio / editor, Christopher H. Sterling

Doe Refe  TK6544.M84 2004 v.1-3

Articles describe all aspects of radio broadcasting from the “golden age” of the 1920s to the 1940s to the present day. Radio personalities and radio programs predominate along with articles on technical aspects of radio broadcasting. Articles contain see also references and lists of titles for further reading. Also includes a general bibliography and general index.

Women’s Studies

Amazons to fighter pilots : a biographical dictionary of military women / Reina Pennington, editor

Doe Refe  U52.A44 2003 v.1-2 Biographies

This two-volume reference set reflects two recent developments in women’s studies. One is the increased interest in military issues that began before September 2001 and second, the increased interest in discussing the role of women in the military. While predominantly composed of biographical essays, there are a number of topical articles in this collection. Lists of articles are arranged by geographic region, time period and conflict, role and branch of service, prisoner/POW status, and group or organization.
A long introductory essay provides a historical overview. Each article gives a short bibliography of additional readings. The appendices include a more extensive bibliography and general index.

Encyclopedia of women and Islamic cultures / general editor, Suad Joseph.
Leiden : Brill, 2003

Doe Refe    BP173.4.E538 2003 v.1-

“The Encyclopedia of women and Islamic cultures (EWK) is an interdisciplinary, transhistorical, and global project. It brings together upwards of 1,000 scholars to write critical essays on women, Muslim and non-Muslim, and Islamic cultures in every region where there have been significant Muslim populations.” This first volume addresses methodologies, paradigms and sources. Entries are divided into the categories of thematic entries and disciplinary entries. An extensive bibliography on women and Islamic cultures covers books and articles in European languages since 1953. Also includes a name index and subject index.