My dearest dear friends.

The spirit moves me to write, so I will get a belay of this extraordinary event and answer your letter. I am about to leave for a short time in the Hebrides. I long to see you, and I think you might enjoy the view. It is a blessing to me, it is a blessing in general. Only now and then do I get a faint spell of my former days energy, or rather, when 15-20 letters a year day were the easiest thing in the world.

Why not notice to a private life with one friend, why? Can you always answer all why? I can not. Not that I care not... often longed to do so, but I do not long for it now. I never seek to tire at people, I never felt so badly in pressed to the wall by my surroundings, yet I see no way of my getting out of this nerve destroying life of mine. I am still economically hard and feet. I and nearly 5000 legs which must be paid. I am worn out from the fierce struggle of the last 3 years in building up a practice and I am simply have not the energy and courage to drop whatever little ground I have gained.
Dare and go in search of a new field. To lead a purified life and live in N.Y. is no more possible than for a drunkard to deal in liquor and not to drink. I have lived to large here and people rather acquired too much right to my life for me to shake them off. This is just one feeble attempt to give you the reason why I can not retire at your hand was lucky indeed. To have you for your cage keeper, I am my own cage keeper. One rather my publicity in my cage exist.
it in a strong and piercing rage at that but what use is it to talk about it -

I am not surprised dear that you dislike the idea to enter fully after 13-14 years imprisonment. I could not quite see the sense of it when you first wrote about it, but I dearly consented to it because I had hoped that whatever preparation you will have to make will help pass your time away. But since this is not the case I want to tell you that I am glad you have given up that idea. I too would rather see you in the Country and West on Nature's beauties than in a large city and in a new prison.

My intellectual prison.

Or I have an idea of your life and the they in so real, so vivid, at times that I almost feel I shall go mad, being unable to do anything that would take life change into your life, that would infuse new rage to vitality. But I scorn of nothing except to try and implore you.
to stretch your patience a little longer and not to let that fear you speak about get hold of you so much. I know it is not in your power and it is a duty to ask you to be more patient than you have been all these years, yet womanly I am vain enough to believe that you could and that you would have taken for the sake of my devotion for the sake of meeting again. Do you think I have not suffered all these years, do you think I have not been on the verge of collapse ot en many times, but the vision of one meeting again of being able to地理 by the hand to be close to you to help you rise up from all the terrible nightmares of all these past years. To bring you back to life things tender care and affection did not let me see and I knew you will not either. I want love it. I want do you here me, mother, mother, mother!!!

I write you a pastel soon after I write my letter hearing you told you wish to have me sent. I have some past you from a friend in Calip. By that way, have seen many of your manufacturer, I think. But same friend can dispose of them. Let me know for, I certainly think the right step was taken in the Purple case and a vast amount of educate work was done by it. The Supreme Court has postponed the reason of his case until next
but. How do you like the idea of publishing a man for having said or done nothing with a whole year's imprisonment? Of course we are not going to let Turner remain on Ellis Island until Dr. Pentecost is going to Washington to day to make a motion for bail for P and see if we can continue the case with F in England. If not we have decided to drop the case for the present. We have achieved our aim in calling general attention to the absurdity of the law and if you say no hope at all in a favorable decision of the higher courts we do not care if we had to drop the case. I have written a fine article in the N.Y. World on A. I am so sorry you can not get it.
The Free Society has been removed to N.Y., where it will be published from now on. It has been in a terrified condition so long that it would have dis-pired pretty soon. After all, N.Y. is still a told mine for propaganda purposes, especially the Kolton is simply remarkable.

Thousands of Dollars are being raised yearly and men that P.S. is here it will get something out of that lunch which no you was swallowed up only by the Reich and

Dixie Club. Jimme. So you know that 2000 S. Were raised for his case in N.Y. and that recently I raised myself. This brings me to a plan I am mapping out to raise a Fund for my beloved Rashmetoff. After Winter I want to set to move to raise not less than $2000 for him and I already have the promise of Baroness you remember her to cooperate. He is a bit of a miscreant, just not a bad fellow at all. The rest are. Stimmie and the University and I know me will success.

Tell me to return here.

I'm not sure if you need anything else. I'm not sure what to do.

If you need anything, please let me know. I just need to know what to do.

Tell me if you need anything else.

Please let me know if you need anything.

Tell me if you need anything else.

Tell me if you need anything else.
must younger than papa and philanthropically superior still a very inferior man otherwise in writing

Majuscule par excellence am sorry to say, that all those of my age we have known together have become ordinary priests and bishops. Some have gained a college dedication to be true but have become even more narrow and im-
limited than ever before and there is no excuse for it because while there is not much of rebellious spirit in live never. Here is a very large intellectual Jewish life on the East side. Literature, the Drama, the Social Life have grown wonderfully, but so have some Men, but the Women have regressed to an amazing extent. It is sad, but true. Will this always be so?

Well, dear, I beg this letter will again do away with your decision of revenge. Besides, you ought to leave all such decisions for a later day, when you will be able to take revenge, by falling in love with another girl, for instance.

I hope to hear from you soon regarding the money. Write clear and tell me that you will cheer up a little bit for the little xmas card please.

Ever affectionately,

P.S. I forgot to tell you that I have moved to smaller quarters again to a 4 room flat which is going to be turned into an old-nests den only as seen as Stella is there. I am making a bold attempt to get rid of stay and last days meanwhile I have the room rented to a young woman and Alex Ockeh go in with me until his folks come.

Emma Cluettan was a friend of Robert Peale and is a very dear friend mine. She is typicall American, but a clear soul, very lazy and the Bar written some very good Poetry for Elder A.D. and other papers and Bar also translated much of Charlotte Perkins Gethse Poetry into German. She is also a very brave girl who cut loose from an abnormally legal tie and taken her two small children along, whom she has been supporting herself. She is now studying Medicine so that she may to you and hope you will encourage her to write more.
