Day 2

Assignment Goals and Learning Outcomes

1. Taking into account your own course goals and the characteristics of your students, what goals do you hope to achieve by including a research assignment in your course?

2. List a key learning outcome related to the research and information-seeking process that you would like your students to develop in completing the research assignment. You may pick one from the example provided or write your own.

   Students will be able to….