Mellon Library/Faculty Fellowship for Undergraduate Research

Faculty Colleague Questionnaire

Thank you for your time in responding to this questionnaire. Please return this questionnaire to Mary Sue Ammon either via email (msammon@berkeley.edu) or campus mail (2195 Hearst, Suite 101, MC #1040) by June 15. If you would prefer to share this information by telephone, send an email to Mary Sue Ammon to arrange a time that would be convenient to you for a phone conversation.

1. What do you know about the Mellon Library/Faculty Fellowship for Undergraduate Research and any of its impacts? You may want to consider the following:

- What you have learned from talking with Mellon Faculty Fellows about their experiences
- What you have learned from a presentation or conversation with other UCB faculty or staff about the Mellon initiative

2. During the past few years, have faculty in your department or program discussed the incorporation of research-based learning and/or library research into the undergraduate curriculum? YES  NO

A. If there have been such discussions:

What advantages or disadvantages have faculty suggested may be associated with such assignments or requirements?

or B. If this topic has not been discussed:

What obstacles do you think are the most serious impediments to implementing such research assignments in undergraduate courses in your department or program?

3. Have you ever tried incorporating library research into an undergraduate course? YES  NO

A. If you have tried such assignments:

Why did you decide to try this and what was the result?

or B. If you have not yet tried such assignments:

What type of support might encourage you to try this out? (For example, would discussions with colleagues or assistance from campus staff be helpful?)
