Copyright Warning

The fees outlined herein are payable to The Bancroft Library for permission to publish materials owned by The Library. The granting of permission to use material for publication does not absolve the publisher from securing permission from the copyright owners and payment of such additional fees as the copyright owners may require if The Bancroft Library does not own the copyright or if the material is not in the public domain. Users assume responsibility for questions of copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise from publication of Bancroft Library materials.

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyright material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

Special Fees

Rates for other uses not listed in this schedule will be quoted upon request. All fees listed are subject to change without notice. Reduced rates are offered to donors needing copies of materials they have previously donated to Bancroft. Special hourly and daily rates for filming and videotaping from the collections will be quoted upon request.

Non-profit eligibility

Non-profit fees are applicable only to those organizations able to prove legal not-for-profit status by providing suitable documentation such as tax-exempt certificates or letters of identification. For-profit corporations, partnerships, private businesses and individuals working for or with non-profit organizations and government agencies on projects or publications sponsored by those organizations may be eligible to receive non-profit rates with suitable letters of identification.

Please complete and return pages 1 and 2
Conditions of Use

The applicant agrees to send The Bancroft Library one complimentary copy of the work containing the reproduction.

The Bancroft Library retains all rights to reproductions of photographs including the right to grant others permission to reproduce the photographs. Additional copies must be purchased from The Bancroft Library. The photographic copy or any facsimile of it may not be reproduced beyond the intended use described in the Pictorial Permission Form.

Permission for publication is granted for one-time use and only for the expressed purpose described in this contract. Any subsequent use or change in use constitutes reuse and must be applied for in writing to The Bancroft Library, and appropriate fees paid. Permission is limited to the applicant and is not transferable. Permission for use is not granted until all fees are paid.

Request reproductions of materials in The Bancroft Library's collection by submitting the Photographic Services Information and Order Form available online at http://www.lib.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/files/duplication-services-orderform.pdf.

Altering the original photographic image beyond standard cropping or resizing requires further discussion with Staff. These changes must be indicated in the accompanying caption or label.

Unless specifically authorized by this contract, images may not be used as a dust jacket, an end paper, nor in an advertisement or any commercial or promotional use of a similar nature, nor to mass reproduce as unbound material.

In authorizing the publication of a photographic copy, The Bancroft Library does not surrender its own right to publish it, or to grant permission to others to do so. All rights are non-exclusive.

Rights are offered for a maximum period of ten years, or for the life of the project. The University of California does not issue rights in perpetuity.

The Bancroft Library reserves the right to limit the number of photographic copies; to restrict the use of reproduction of rare or valuable material involving unusual difficulty in copying; and to charge a higher duplication fee than specified. Copies are not supplied to commercial picture agencies except by special arrangement.

Credit Information

The publication must properly credit The Bancroft Library. Credit should appear in close proximity to the image or in a special section devoted to credits. The preferred credit line is:

   Courtesy of The Bancroft Library
   University of California, Berkeley

Call numbers should appear either near the illustrations or at the point of credit. Crediting individual items is mandatory.

Credit should be included with other Sources of Illustrations in film or video publications.

The resolution of reproductions distributed electronically should not be greater than 72 dots per inch or 640x480 pixels.

Credit for images used in exhibitions must appear within the exhibition area.

DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

High Resolution (Publication Quality) Digital Images: Digital images of text or pictorial material are available for purchase by electronic file transfer. Digital images exist as 24-bit TIFF, RGB formatted, 100 MB sized files. Resolution of digital images from original material (not previously scanned) is 600ppi at 8x10 inches. (Digital files from older scans may be less than 600ppi.) The fee for a digital image created from original material is $33.00; the fee for a digital scan created from an existing image file is $17.00. There is an additional service charge of $12.00 per order. For an electronic file transfer, the images are uploaded onto a server, and an email will inform you of the location from which the images may be downloaded.

Mid-resolution (Research Quality) PDFs: PDFs are created from either original material or existing microfilm reels. When microfilm is available and in good condition, the PDFs will be made from a microfilm positive to save originals from use. This research-quality PDF service is intended for personal research use only and not for publication, exhibits, or other uses.

Most orders for photographic duplication from The Bancroft Library are forwarded to Library Applications and Publishing or the Digital Imaging Lab. Orders for high-resolution images are usually completed within 15 business days of receipt. PDF orders are finished within 4 weeks of receipt. Large or complex orders will require additional time. To begin processing, we need the signed duplication services form, signed permission form (if applicable), and payment information. Contact The Bancroft Library at (510) 643-4594 to inquire about the possibility of placing a RUSH order for high-resolution images. RUSH orders are generally completed in one quarter of the time for twice the price. RUSH is not available for microfilm or PDF at this time.

Completed microfilm orders may be picked up at The Bancroft Library Reference Desk during library hours or mailed for $10.00. Large or bulky orders (8+ microfilm reels) are $13.00 per shipment. International orders are $20.00. Delivery of digital images and PDFs is electronic (FTP) only. All files must be downloaded within 7 days. A new order must be submitted for any images requested after the deletion.

PAYMENT

All orders must be paid in advance. There is an additional charge for large or complex orders. You may pay by: (1) cash, (2) check payable to “U.C. Regents,” (3) American Express, Discover, MasterCard, or Visa credit cards, (4) Interdepartmental or Intercampus charge, (5) University of California recharge, or (6) printed purchase orders from an established business or institution.

COPYRIGHT AND OTHER LEGAL RESTRICTIONS

- Access to and duplication of collections are subject to restrictions defined by federal and state law, University administrative policies, and gift and bequest agreements.
- The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain specified conditions, libraries and archives may furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction not be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research.” If a researcher makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of fair use, that researcher may be liable for copyright infringement.
- The Bancroft Library reserves the right to refuse duplication orders that, in our judgment, would violate copyright, privacy, or other pertinent laws.

A DUPLICATION REQUEST IS NOT PERMISSION TO PUBLISH

Duplicated materials are supplied for personal research purposes only. The Bancroft Library, Library Applications and Publishing, and the Digital Imaging Lab are not responsible for obtaining permission to copy or publish copyrighted materials. It is your responsibility to obtain permission from the copyright owner. If copies requested on this form are intended for publication, exhibition, or other public use, now or in the future, it is your responsibility, in addition to obtaining copyright clearance from the copyright owner, to receive permission from The Bancroft Library. For Bancroft permissions requests, please contact Peter Hanff at 510-642-2437 or phanff@library.berkeley.edu.
