Instructions to Contributors

1. Manuscripts, in triplicate and in English, and editorial inquiries should be submitted to the Editor:

   Prof. Felton A. Hasnain
   Department of Geography
   Institute of Archaeology
   Llinianus College London
   33-34 Gordon Square
   London WC1H 0PD, England
   Tel. 011-44-171-367-7010 ext. 4429
   Fax: 011-44-171-363-2572 or 011-44-171-813-5240

   It is strongly recommended that prospective authors contact the Editor before beginning to write, to ensure there is no significant overlap with other manuscripts in progress.

2. Submission is a representation that the manuscript has not been published previously and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. A statement transferring copyright from the authors or their employing institutions to Blackwell Academic/Phenex Publishers will be required before the manuscript can be accepted for publication. The Editor will supply the necessary forms for the transfer. Such a written transfer of copyright, which previously was assumed to be implicit in the act of submitting a manuscript, is necessary, under the U.S. Copyright Law in order for the publisher to carry through the dissemination of research results and reviews as widely and effectively as possible.

3. Type double-spaced on one side of 8 1/2 × 11 inch or A4 white paper using generous margins on all sides. All copies must be dark, sharp, and clear. Computer-generated manuscripts must be of letter-quality (not dot-matrix).

4. Order the elements comprising the manuscript as follows: title page, abstract, key words, text, appendix, acknowledgments, references, tables, and figure-citation list. All acknowledgment (including those for grant and financial support) should be typed in one paragraph on a separate page that directly precedes the References section.

5. A title page is to be provided and should include the title of the article, author’s name (no degrees), author’s affiliation, suggested running head, and the archaeological time period, country, and region discussed in the manuscript. The affiliation should comprise the department, institution (usually university or company), city, and state (or nation) and should be typed as a footnote to the author’s name. The suggested running head should be less than 80 characters (including spaces) and should comprise the article title or an abbreviated version thereof. For office purposes, the title page should include the complete mailing address, telephone number, and fax number of the one author designated to review proofs.

6. An abstract (both English and French) is to be provided; preferably no longer than 150 words.

7. A list of key words is to be provided directly below the abstract. Key words should express the precise content of the manuscript, as they are used for indexing purposes, and should include the region and archaeological period discussed in the manuscript.

8. Illustrations (photographs, drawings, diagrams, and charts) are to be numbered in one consecutive series of Arabic numerals. The captions for illustrations should be typed on a separate sheet of paper. All illustrations must be complete and final, i.e., camera-ready. Photographs should be large, glossy prints, showing high contrast. Drawings should be high-quality laser prints or should be prepared with India ink. Either the original drawings or good-quality photographic prints are acceptable. Each numbered figure must be on a separate sheet of sturdy paper not exceeding 8 1/2 × 11 inches in size. Identify figures on the back with author’s name and number of the illustration. Electronic artwork submitted on disk should be in TIFF or EPS format (1200 dpi for line and 300 dpi for half tones and grey-scale art). Color art should be in the CMYK color space. Artwork should be on a separate disk from the text, and hard copy must accompany the disk.

9. Tables should be numbered (with Roman numerals) and referred to by number in the text. Each table should be typed on a separate sheet of paper. Center the title above the table, and type explanatory footnotes (indicated by superscript lowercase letters) below the table.

10. List references alphabetically at the end of the paper and refer to them in the text by name and year in parentheses. Where there are three or more authors, only the first author’s name is given in the text, followed by et al. References should include (in this order): last names and initials of all authors, year published, title of article, name of publication, volume number, and inclusive pages. The style and punctuation of the references should conform to that used in the journal—illustrated by the following examples:

11. Footnotes should be avoided. When their use is absolutely necessary, footnotes should be numbered consecutively using Arabic numerals and should be typed at the bottom of the page in which they occur. Place a line above the footnote, so that it is set off from the text. Use the appropriate superscript numeral for citation in the text.

12. The metric system should be used for scales and measurements, with the English equivalents only in English. When used with numerals, units should be abbreviated with no punctuation (e.g., 3 cm, 4 g, 25%). Radiocarbon dates with laboratory numbers should be expressed either by (before present) according to 1950-568-year (calendar age), cal AD and cal BC for tree-ring calibrated age determinations, and AD and BC for calendrical dates. Cardinal directions should be spelled out, but other directions abbreviated (e.g., NE, NW). Foreign (non-English) words should be underlined and a translation provided.

13. After a manuscript has been accepted for publication and all revisions have been incorporated, manuscripts should be submitted to the Editor’s Office in hard copy accompanied by electronic files on disk. Label the disk with identifying information—software, journal name, and first author’s last name. The disk must be the one from which the accompanying manuscript (finalized version) was printed out. The Editor’s Office cannot accept a disk without its accompanying, matching hard copy manuscript.

14. The journal makes no page charges. Reprints are available to authors, and orders with the current price schedule are sent with proofs.
