Notes for Contributors

Agling & Mental Health welcomes original contributions from all parts of the world on the understanding that their contents have not previously been published or submitted elsewhere for publication. All submissions will be sent anonymously to independent referees. It is a condition of acceptance that papers become the copyright of the publisher.

Books for review should be sent to Dr Chris Gilleard, Psychology Department, Springfield Hospital, Tooting, London SW17 7DJ, UK.

Manuscripts

Manuscripts may be in the form of: (i) regular articles (not exceeding 10,000 words), or (ii) short reports for rapid publication (not exceeding 2,000 words). Four complete copies should be submitted to either Editor: Dr Martin Orell, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioural Sciences, University College London, Wolfson Building, 8 Riding House, London W1N 8AA, United Kingdom, or Dan G. Blazer, J. P. Gibbons Professor of Psychiatry, Duke University Medical Center, School of Medicine, Box 3005, Durham, NC 27710, USA.

All submissions should be in the style of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (4th edition, 1994). Papers should be typed on one side of the paper, double spaced throughout (including the references), with margins of at least 2.5 cm (1 inch). All pages must be numbered.

The first page should include the title of the paper, first name, middle initial(s) and last name of the author(s), and for each author a short institutional address and an abbreviated title (for running headlines within the article). At the bottom of the page give the full name and address (including telephone and fax numbers and e-mail address if possible) of the author to whom all correspondence (including proofs) should be sent. The second page should repeat the title and contain an abstract of not more than 200 words.

The third page should repeat the title as a heading to the main body of the text.

The text should normally be divided into sections with the headings, Introduction, Methods, Results, and Discussion. Long articles may need subheadings within some sections to clarify their content. Within the text section headings and subheadings should be typed on a separate line without numbering, indentation or bold or italic typeface.

Carfax strongly encourages authors to send the final, revised copies of their and electronic disk forms. It is essential that the hard copy version of your article exactly matches the material on disk. Please print-out the hard copy from the disk you are sending. Submit three printed copies of the final version with the disk to the journal's editorial office.

Save all files on a standard 3.5 inch high density disk. We prefer to receive disks in Microsoft Word in a PC format, but can translate from most other common word-processing programs as well as Macs. Please specify which program you have used. Do not save your files as "text only" or "read only".

References

References should follow APA style. All publications cited in the text should be listed following the text; all references listed must be mentioned in the text. Within the text references should be denoted by the author's name and year of publication in parentheses, e.g. (Woods, 1995) or (Mansell & McGill, 1995) or, if there are more than two authors (Gallico et al., 1986). Where several references are quoted consecutively within the text the order should be alphabetical, e.g. (Ellard & Sherr, 1989; Follman, 1992). Similarly, where several references are quoted within a single year, the order should be alphabetical (Mansell & McGill, 1995; Woods, 1995). If more than one paper from the same author(s) and year is listed, the date should be followed by (a), (b) etc., e.g. (Blazer, 1995a).

References should be listed at the end of the paper in alphabetical order, typed in double spacing. Responsibility for the references and their verification against the original documents lies with the author(s).

References should be listed on a separate sheet(s) in the following standard form, capitalization and punctuation:

(a) for periodical articles (titles of journals should not be abbreviated):

(b) for books:

(c) for chapters within multi-authored books:

Units of measurement

All measurements must be cited in SI units.

Illustrations

All illustrations (including photographs, graphs and diagrams) should be referred to as Figures and their position indicated in the text (e.g. Fig. 3). Each should be submitted on a separate sheet of paper, numbered on the back with Figure number (Arabic numerals) and the title of the paper. The captions of all figures should be submitted on a separate sheet, should include keys to symbols, and should make interpretation possible without reference to the text.

Figures should ideally be professionally drawn and designed with the format of the journal (A4 portrait, 297×210 mm) in mind and should be capable of reduction.

Tables

Tables should be submitted on separate sheets, numbered in Arabic numerals, and their position indicated in the text (e.g. Table 1). Each table should have a short, self-explanatory title. Vertical rules should not be used to separate columns. Units should appear in parentheses in the column heading but not in the body of the table. Any explanatory notes should be given as a footnote at the bottom of the table.

Proofs

Proofs will be sent to the author nominated for correspondence. Proofs are supplied for checking and making essential typographical corrections, not for general revision or alteration. Proofs must be returned (by air mail or fax if overseas) within 72 hours of receipt.

Offprints

Fifty offprints of each paper are supplied free, to the nominated author for correspondence for further distribution, together with a complete copy of the relevant issue of the journal. Additional offprints may be purchased and should be ordered when proofs are returned. Offprints are sent approximately two weeks after publication.

Copyright

It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in Taylor & Francis Ltd. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication providing that prior permission is obtained from Taylor & Francis. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
