GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS
Manuscripts and correspondence should be addressed to the editor Dr. Marta Deřinská, Moravian Museum (Anthropos Institute, Zelňákova 6, 659 37 Brno, Czech Republic. Tel., fax: +420 5 42219511, e-mail: anthropologie@mmu.cz. Anthropologie publishes original papers, research reports and news, book reviews, notes and announcements. Manuscripts will be accepted in English, French or German. The original copy should be computer-printed or typed double-spaced, on one side of paper, including notes and bibliographic references. Top, bottom and both side margins should be of about 3 cm. The editor will particularly appreciate submissions on diskette (if possible, delivered in MS Word, WordPerfect, Write, or T602 processors). For security's sake, the authors are kindly asked to make another version of the manuscript on the same diskette (exported in plain ASCII format). The diskette should be a 3.5 inch diskette, preferably in Windows format (IBM MS-DOS or Macintosh being also accepted). It must be labelled with the author's name, the file name(s), and the word-processing program used.

In any case, the diskette must be accompanied by a printed copy of the manuscript. If the diskette and paper copy differ, the paper copy will be considered as the definitive version.

TITLE PAGE
The title page must contain the title (used at the same time as running headline), the author's (or authors') full name or names, and an address for correspondence including telephone number, fax number and e-mail address.

KEY WORDS AND ABSTRACT
Manuscripts submitted as main papers must be accompanied by an abstract and key words in the language of the text, and preferably also in English when the text is in French or in German.

LITERATURE CITED
In the text, references to the literature should be cited by author's surname followed by year of publication:

... as noted by Shea (1989), human ...
Shea (1985, 1986) argued ...
For example, Leutenegger and Cheverud's (1982) statistical analyses ...
... be considered "equally likely" (Martin et al. 1994:199) ...
... to erupt our teeth (Schultz 1924) ...
... development (Martin et al. 1994, Willier, Martin 1985).

When references are made to more than one paper by the same author, published in the same year, they should be designated in the text with alphabetical indexes (Schoen, Hoffman 1995a, b).

BIBLIOGRAPHIC REFERENCES
The literature list must be arranged alphabetically, not chronologically, by author's or authors' surname(s) in the following style:

Author's name (or names), year of publication, complete title, volume, and inclusive pages as follows:

JOURNALS:

BOOKS:

FOOTNOTES
Footnotes to the text should be limited as much as possible and must be numbered consecutively. The corresponding reference must be clearly indicated in the text.

ILLUSTRATIONS AND TABLES
Illustrations (only originals and high quality copies of drawings will be accepted) and tables should be on white paper and they must be suitable for printing. Illustrations and tables prepared by computer and delivered on diskette will be returned.
All tables and figures must be cited in the text. They should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals (Table 1, Table 2, Figure 1, Figure 2... etc.). Table titles and figure legends should be delivered on a separate sheet (separate file on diskette) and must follow the sequence of reference in the text. It should be indicated on the margin of the manuscript where the table or figure is to appear in the publication.
The reverse side of each illustration should indicate author's name, figure number, top side of illustration, reduction requested (will be respected within the range of the publisher's possibilities) illustrations should be mailed flat and protected by cardboard.

BOOK REVIEWS
Book reviews should begin with the author(s), title, publisher, year of publication, number of pages, price and ISSN of the book reviewed.

ARRANGEMENTS WITH AUTHORS
Copy of the article being accepted for publication, the author is expected to recognise the copyright transfer agreement, transferring rights to the publisher. Proof. A single set of page and illustration proofs will be sent to the author.
All corrections should be marked clearly, directly on page proof.
Reprints: Authors of main papers will receive automatically 25 copies of reprints. It is important to order the exact quantity of supplementary reprints well in advance, i.e. together with the submission of corrected proofs.
Reprints of announcements and book reviews are available on special arrangement only.
