Information for contributors

Anthropology in Action publishes articles, commentaries and research reports dealing with the use of anthropology in any area of policy or practice. The journal provides a forum for debate and analysis of anthropological themes. Examples of subjects covered by Anthropology in Action include:

- Organisations
- HIV/AIDS Research
- New Reproductive Technologies
- The Rights of Indigenous Peoples
- Community Care and Social Policy
- Health, Medicine and Suffering
- Education and Government Policy
- Museums, Place and Space
- Management
- Ethnicity and Violence
- Overseas Development

When preparing your manuscript for submission please take into account the following:

1. Manuscripts (two copies) should be clearly typed on A4 paper, with double spacing throughout, and typed on one side of the paper only. Articles will not be accepted for publication unless a 3.5" disk copy accompanies manuscripts (any IBM or Mac compatible format will suffice). Indicate which computer programme has been used and the full name of the article/report. Please contact the Editor if this presents difficulties.

2. Articles should be 4,000 words (maximum) unless specified otherwise and should be submitted with an abstract of 100 words (maximum). Research reports should be 2,000 words (maximum).

3. The articles should have a title, sub-headings and a brief designation of the author (including present affiliation). All abbreviations should be written in full at first reference.

4. Please ensure that all quotations are given a page reference. Single quotation marks should be used throughout. References to literature are not cited in footnotes but are carried within the text in parentheses with author’s last name, year of original publication, and page eg (Scholte 1987:59). Footnotes appear as ‘Notes’ at the end of articles. Bibliographies should follow the Harvard system of referencing eg Kaprow, M. 1991 ‘Magical Work: fire-fighters in New York’, Human Organisation, Vol. 50, No.1 (Spring) pp. 97–103

5. Contributions should be sent to Jonathan Skinner (Editor), School of Social and Health Sciences, University of Abertay, Dundee DD1 1HG; tel: 01382 308703; fax: 01382 223121; email: J.SKINNER@mail1.tay.ac.uk

subscriptions

The journal is currently produced three times a year and received free by all members of Anthropology in Action. For an application form please send a self-addressed envelope to the Administrator (see below). The Institutional rate for receiving the journal is £30 sterling. Please send order/cheque stating a contact name for the institution/department/library.

advertising rates

Full page £100
Half page £60
Quarter page £40
A4 insert £100 per page plus production costs if necessary

general correspondence

Contact Anthropology in Action Administrator: Stella Richards, School of Comparative and Applied Social Sciences, The University of Hull, Cottingham Road, Hull HU6 7RX.
Tel: 01482 466213; email: S.R.Richards@cas.hull.ac.uk

desktop publishing

Catherine Etchell, 11 High Street, Nelson, Treharris CF46 6EU
tel: 01443 450749 e-mail: CMEtchell@aol.com