Notes for Contributors

Aims & Scope. See inside front cover.

Manuscripts. All submissions will be subject to the normal process of peer review. Please submit three copies of your manuscript, typed on one side of the paper and double spaced, as well as an electronic version on disk (see below) to: Paul Sant-Cassia, Department of Anthropology, 43 Old Elvett, Durham, DH1 3HN, UK. Contributors should note that material submitted to the journal must be original, must not have already appeared in another publication and must not be submitted for publication elsewhere while under consideration by the journal.

The title of the paper and the author(s) name(s) should appear at the beginning of the paper. All pages of the manuscript must be numbered. All manuscripts should include full correspondence details (street address, telephone, fax and email addresses) of the corresponding author. Each paper requires an abstract of 100-150 words summarizing the significant coverage and findings. Each abstract should be accompanied by up to six keywords, which between them should characterize the paper.

Please make sure your contact information is clearly visible on the outside of all packages you are sending to Editors.

Disk submissions. Authors should send the final, revised version of their article in both hard copy (paper) and electronic (disk) forms. It is essential that the hard copy (paper) version exactly matches the material on disk. Please print out the hard copy from the disk you are sending. Submit three printed copies of the final version with the disk to the journal’s editorial office. Save all files on a standard 3.5-inch high-density disk. We prefer to receive disks in Microsoft Word (PC format), but can translate from most other common word-processing programs as well as Macs. Please specify which program you have used. Do not save your files as "text only" or "read only".

Tables and figures. Tables must be typed on separate sheets and not included as part of the text. The captions to illustrations should be gathered and typed on a separate sheet. Tables should be numbered by Roman numerals and figures by Arabic numerals. The approximate position of tables and figures should be indicated in the paper. Please supply clear copies of artwork (preferably the originals) for figures in a finished format suitable for reproduction. Figures will not normally be redrawn by the publisher. The author(s) must arrange permission for the reproduction of illustrations and tables within articles. Figures may be sent electronically, preferably in either TIFF (tagged image format) or EPS (encapsulated Postscript) formats. However, we can also accept PICT or JPEG formats. The publisher will normally reproduce colour figures in black and white.

References. Citations should be in Harvard style: author, date and page, e.g. (Hocart 1941: 27). No comma after the authors name. Always cite the page number where you are quoting or paraphrasing from a specific part of a text, and avoid too much citation where a work in its entirety is referred to. Avoid the use of ibid. and op. cit.; note, cf., means 'compare to' not 'see also'. If you mean the latter, say so. If scholarly work cited is not published, use for example (Williams, unpub.) or if in press, use (Williams, in press). However, references to archival sources should be given in endnotes. Notes should be numbered consecutively throughout the text and printed at the end of the paper. All Spelling as in Oxford English Dictionary, i.e. use ‘x’ instead of ‘s’ for words such as organization, etc. References cited and only these, should be listed under the heading References, for examples, see below:

Offprints. Fifty offprints and a copy of the journal are supplied free for each article. Additional offprints and copies of the journal may be purchased and should be ordered when the proofs are returned. Offprints are sent by accelerated surface mail soon after publication.

Copyright. It is a condition that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in Taylor & Francis Ltd. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may use their article elsewhere after publication provided that prior permission is obtained from Taylor & Francis Ltd. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
