Indian Anthropologist, Journal of Indian Anthropological Association, is published twice a year. It carries articles, review articles, book reviews, brief communication and correspondence pertaining to all branches of anthropology. Contribution of not more than 7500 words may be submitted by any professional scholar, and should be sent to the Editor. The Indian Anthropological Association holds the copyright right in all material published in the journal and reproduction of the same elsewhere must be approved by it. Enquiries regarding this should be addressed to the Managing Editor.

Information to Contributors

Only original papers and articles written in clear, concise and grammatically correct English will be accepted. Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. The Editor reserves the right to edit manuscripts to ensure conciseness, clarity and stylistic consistency. Membership in the Indian Anthropological Association is not a prerequisite for publication in the journal.

Manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate, typewritten, double-spaced with ample margins on one side of the paper. The author should mark in the margin of the manuscript where figures and tables may be inserted. The paper should carry an abstract of 100 to 150 words.

The title page should comprise title of paper, first name(s) and surname of author(s) institute, a short title for use as running head, address to which communication regarding the manuscript should be directed.

Notes if any, should be given at the end of the article before references. The list of references should include only works referred to in the text. References should be arranged alphabetically. They should be cited as follows: Paper year of publication, full title, journal abbreviation, volume number with pagination; Books-author's surname(s) with initials year of publication, full title, editor, place, publisher.

Tables and illustrations should be submitted on separate sheets, numbered and must have a heading or a legend respectively.

Authors will receive 10 reprints of their papers free of cost. Additional reprint may be obtained on payment. The cost of blocks would be borne by the authors.
