Journal of Indo-European Studies
Instructions for Contributors

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES
Articles should be submitted to the General Editor:

J P Mallory
Department of Archaeology
Queen’s University
Belfast BT7 1NN
Northern Ireland

Articles should not normally exceed 5,000 words although exceptions can be made. Contributors should indicate both their E-mail and Fax numbers on their submission. All articles will be refereed by the appropriate panel.

SUBMITTED FORMAT:
All articles should be submitted in both printed form (three copies with double spacing) and on computer disc. The preferred format is Microsoft Word or WordPerfect for Mac or PC; if any other format is submitted, a copy of the text should also be made in RTF to facilitate file conversion. Figure captions are treated as text and should be appended to the text of the article. Phonetic marks should be clear and distinct.

All tables and figures should be submitted separately. Illustrations should be submitted on standard size (American 11 inch/International A4 sized paper) and the number of the figure should be written lightly on the back in pencil. Figures may also be submitted on disc in any format supported by Adobe Photoshop or Illustrator.

FOOTNOTES:
Footnotes should not be used for referencing but only for additional comment.

TEXT REFERENCES:
Text references should follow the following format:
(Hamp 1990a: 145-150)
Please note:
a) use of the colon,
b) full page numbers (not 145-50),
c) avoid the use of 'ibid', 'op cit', 'loc cit'.

Volume 28, Number 3 & 4, Fall/Winter 2000