NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

1. Please submit a file of the manuscript on an IBM or Apple Macintosh format disc. The file should be in Word or Wordperfect format: plain ASCII text files are not acceptable. Communications and articles may also be sent by Email to kingsley.garbett@adelaide.edu.au, marked for the attention of the Editor.

2. Two copies of each manuscript must be submitted, together with a separate 400 word abstract. Manuscripts must be typed in double spacing on A4 size paper with a 4cm left hand margin. Shorter quotations should be included in double quotation marks. Longer quotations should be indented from each margin and typed in single spacing. A dash in the text should be indicated by the appropriate symbol or a double hyphen. Vernacular phrases, foreign words and emphasis must be shown in italic script.

Citations of published material must be included in the text in the style adopted in Man, e.g. (Smith 1973:143). Footnotes are to be numbered consecutively throughout the text, using raised numbers. Footnotes must be assembled in single spacing on a separate page after the main text under the heading NOTES. References cited in the text must be assembled on a separate page under the heading BIBLIOGRAPHY. Entries should adhere to the following style:

Berger, P. L. and T. Luckman

Firth, R.

Rosaldo, R.

Tables, maps and figures must be numbered in Arabic numbers and typed or neatly drawn, using dense black ink, on a separate page. If produced by computer, they should be submitted on a disc as a Word meta file or a similar high resolution format.
