Notes for Contributors

Manuscripts to be considered for publication should be sent to either Abebe Zegaye, Department of Sociology, University of South Africa, PO Box 392, Pretoria 0003, South Africa or David Theo Goldberg, Director, Humanities Research Institute, University of California, Administration 307, Irvine, CA 92697-3350, USA. Three complete copies of each manuscript should be submitted. They should be typed on one side of the paper, double spaced, with ample margins, and bear the title of the contribution and name(s) of the author(s), along with a copy on 3.5 inch disk in ASCII text, WordPerfect, Word for DOS, Word for Windows, Microsoft Word or RTF format. The full postal address of the author who will check proofs and receive correspondence should also be included. All pages should be numbered. Footnotes to the text should be avoided wherever this is reasonably possible.

The journal also carries a Debate section involving concise critical contributions on controversial issues concerning social identities. Submissions to this section are also welcome.

Books for review should be directed to Julia Maxted, Human Sciences Research Council, Private Bag X41, Pretoria, South Africa 0001. Rejected manuscripts will not normally be returned unless a self-addressed envelope and international postal coupons have been sent.

Tables and captions to illustrations. Tables must be typed out on separate sheets and not included as part of the text. The captions to illustrations should be gathered together and also typed out on a separate sheet. Tables and figures should be numbered in Arabic numerals. The approximate position of tables and figures should be indicated in the manuscript. Captions should include keys to symbols.

Figures. Artwork must be submitted in suitable condition for publication.

References. These should be indicated in the typescript by giving the author's name and the year of publication, as follows: Weaver (1978) or (Weaver, 1978). If several papers by the same author and from the same year are cited, a, b, c, etc. should be put after the year of publication. The references should be listed in full at the end of the paper in the following standard form:

Commission of the European Communities (1991) The Regions in the 1990s, Brussels: CEC.

Titles of journals should not be abbreviated.

Proofs. These will be sent to authors if there is sufficient time to do so. They should be corrected and returned to the publishers within three days. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in Taylor & Francis Ltd. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication providing that prior permission is obtained from Taylor & Francis Ltd. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
