Taboo: The Journal of Culture and Education

Taboo: The Journal of Culture and Education is an academic forum for the study of teaching and pedagogy that focuses on the relationship between education and its socio-cultural context. Drawing upon a variety of contextualizing disciplines including cultural studies, curriculum theorizing, feminist studies, the social foundations of education, critical pedagogy, multi/interculturalism, queer theory, and symbolic interactionism, Taboo is grounded on the notion of "radical contextualization." The journal encourages papers from a wide range of contributors who work within these general areas. As its title suggests, Taboo seeks compelling and controversial submissions.

The annual subscription rate for individuals is $40 US and for institutions is $60 US; for addresses outside the United States add $20 per year. Single issues are available for $20 each. Subscriptions orders should be addressed and payable to Caddo Gap Press, 3145 Geary Boulevard PMB 275, San Francisco, California 94118, USA. See subscription form on page 108.

Articles, contributions and editorial correspondence (with disc) should be sent to Shirley R. Steinberg, Senior Editor, 128 Chestnut St., Lakewood, New Jersey, USA. We also accept downloads on email: <Msgramsnci@aol.com>. Please make sure that electronic submissions are in PDF form. The submission deadline for the Spring-Summer 2001 issue is December 31, 2000.

Contributors are asked to send two copies of manuscript. For questions of style, refer to either The Chicago Manual of Style (for essay or descriptive articles) or the APA (for research articles). Editorial preferences for Taboo will consider author input. We suggest that contributors retain one copy of the manuscript as submissions will not be returned.

Upon acceptance of an article by the journal the author(s) will be asked to transfer copyright of the article to Taboo: The Journal of Culture and Education. The transfer will ensure the widest possible dissemination of information.
