New Reference Materials is an annotated list of reference sources (print, microfiche and electronic) received for the Doe and Moffitt reference collections. Titles are listed alphabetically by subject category and alphabetically by author, or title if no author is available, within each category. Entries include the bibliographic citation, a brief description of the content, library location and call number.

The New Reference Materials list is made available on an irregular basis. Annotations are written by Steve Mendoza smendoza@library.berkeley.edu. Questions regarding reference collections may be sent to Myrtis Cochran mcochran@library.berkeley.edu

August/September 2003

Area Studies (countries of the world)

Eight volume appendix to the Enciclopedia universal ilustrada. This Spanish language illustrated encyclopedia set is a major reference tool for Spanish and Spanish-American biography. Major articles include extensive bibliographies, especially for world countries, Iberian Peninsula and Latin American topics. Richly illustrated along with many color plates, city maps, geographical and historical maps.

Doe Refe  PR9180.2.E53 2002

A resource on writers and writing on Canada from across history. Also provides articles on general literary terms and genres, then turns back to Canada as a focus point for further discussion within these articles. Many suggestions for further reading are provided. Includes a chronology, author and supplementary indices.

Doe Refe  DK37.6.A12.R87 2002

A bibliography on the 24 leaders of Russia from Peter the Great through Vladimir Putin. Mostly English language books are cited along with some Russian language sources. Includes author, title, and subject indices.
Fine Arts

Hamilton, Marsha J.
Projecting ethnicity and race: an annotated bibliography of studies on imagery in American film
Bibliographies and indexes in ethnic studies ; no. 10

An annotated bibliography of 478 book titles useful for the study in film of the imagery of popular culture of ethnic or racial groups. Gender groups receive limited representation. Publications are those published from about 1915 through 2001. Dissertations, periodicals and non-book formats are not included. Does include indices for film titles, name and subjects and essay titles.

General works

Government Information and Political Science

Census 2000. San Francisco Bay Area detailed profiles (demographic profiles #2, 3, 4) : data summary #4.
Oakland, Calif. : Planning Section, Metropolitan Transportation Commission, 2002.

Focusing on the nine-county San Francisco Bay Area, this report provides a first look at sample data based on the Census 2000 "long form". Eight categories of data include workers and vehicles, commuting, residential mobility, disability, poverty and income, and school enrollment status. Appendices provide selected rankings of Bay Area and California places by selected variables, including 1990 and 2000 comparison for Bay area places by selected variables, and include Census 2000 data for Bay Area places for other variables.

This report is the fourth in a series of general use reports from the 2000 Census produced by the Metropolitan Transportation Commission.

Two volume set provides essays and articles on all aspects of the US Presidency and Vice Presidency. Areas covered include the origin and development of the presidency; selection and removal process; powers of the presidency; the president, the public and the parties; the White House and the Executive Branch; the chief executive and the federal government; and biographies of the presidents and vice-presidents. All chapters within the sections are extensively footnoted and include selected bibliographies. The appendices include selected documents and texts along with an index.
Public opinion: a bibliography with indexes / William A. Blade, editor.

A bibliography of all types of monographs on public opinion surveys, reports and studies. The focus of publications listed is vast, includes national election surveys, attitudes towards immigrants in Australia, a public opinion report from the Arkansas crime poll of 1987, American diplomats in Russia, case studies in Orphan Diplomacy 1916-1919, naming the other images of the Maori in New Zealand film and television, to “Voton, my enemy, can Britain live with the Germans in the European Union?” The majority of this slim volume is the bibliography, 19 pages of which comprise entries under “The”. Users are aided by author and subject indices.

History

American Indian history / edited by Carole A. Barrett.

Doe Refe E77.A496 2003 v.1-2
Moffitt Refe E77.A496 2003 v.1-2

Two volume set providing encyclopedia style entries on all aspects of American Indian history. Each entry provides a factual context for the subject with dates, location, and Native American groups involved, as well as see also references and suggestions for further reading. Appendices include a gazetteer of historic places, lists of historic Native Americans; museums, archives and libraries; organizations, agencies and societies; a time line; tribes by culture area, a bibliography, and a list of web resources. Also includes a category index, geographical index, personages index, tribe index and subject index.

This collection assembles a wide variety of detailed and expansive maps representing major historical events, trends, and boundaries for the United States from pre-historical periods to the present. Each time period covered begins with a brief narrative overview. Regions outside the United States are included as they relate to U.S. history. Includes a selected bibliography and index.

Perrault, Anna H., 1944-
United States history: a multicultural, interdisciplinary guide to information sources.

A reference guide to information sources, both in print and electronic forms, for general and topical issues of U.S. history. Part 1 concentrates on general sources. Part 2 relates to topics and issues in broad categories with special attention to sexual and ethnic minorities, to multicultural experiences, religion, education, and popular culture in the United States. Each section begins with a brief overview. Each source is fully described. Contains author, title and subject indices.
Covering the period from the fall of Rome to the beginning of the Italian Renaissance, this volume gives an overview of the Middle Ages with extensive articles on major figures, topics, geography and dynasties. Richly illustrated, entries include cross-references to related topics, sidebars that highlight important topics and maps designed to give historical context and enrichment to the text.

Vernus, Pascal.
The book of the pharaohs.

Language (Grammars, dictionaries)
Melamed, Ezra Zion.
Milon Arami-Ivri le-Talmud Bavli.

Law and Legal Studies
Literature (English, Comparative Literature)
British writers classics.
New York, N.Y. : Charles Scribner's Sons, c2003

Burgess, Michael.
Reference guide to science fiction, fantasy, and horror.
Reference sources in the humanities series.
An annotated reference guide to source material for science fiction, fantasy and horror literature. Material is listed under categories of encyclopedias and dictionaries, atlases, gazetteers, directories and source guides in various genres. Also listed are general and national bibliographies, subject bibliographies, and sections devoted to the writes and publishers of science fiction. Includes indices by author, title and subject.

Doe Refe PQ6055.F46 2002 v.1-2

An overview of Spanish literature dealing with feminist themes, including those written by men. Major themes include women’s studies, gender studies, gynocritics, and feminist criticism, writers includes are mostly form Spain. Theme articles on various subgenres compliment articles on individual authors. All entries contain short bibliographies of works by and on the authors and themes. Includes a selected bibliography and index.

Doe Refe PC4667.G853 2001 Dictionaries

In Spanish, a guide to Castilian words and terms used in the Spanish language documents of New Spain for the 16th through 18th centuries. Aids in interpreting archaic and unknown words related to mining, legal terms, commerce, haciendas and religion.

This two in three volume set collects references to published works of fiction in American magazines and newspapers before 1800. Since the distinction between magazines and newspapers has been murky historically, this has often been a difficult genre of literature to access. Works may be accessed by the alphabetical catalogue, author/signature index, or by the register of fiction for each magazine. Appendices include a chronological list of fiction by American authors, a chronological list of translations and a list of works consulted and cited.

This guide provides short articles on almost 700 authors from Eastern Europe post World War II, including authors in exile. Their literary career is discussed and their works listed along with translations into English. The volume begins with a long introductory essay discussing the various themes and genres of Eastern European literature. It also contains a chronology, selected bibliography and index.

A reference guide to contemporary South Asian novelists writing in English. Extensive articles outline the writers' lives, their major works and themes and critical reception. Each article is accompanied by a complete bibliography of the writers' work along with studies of the writer. The volume includes a selected bibliography on the genre in general along with an index.

Religious Studies and Philosophy

ha-Milon ha-entsiklopedi shel ha-Mikra / Etan Avpeon; orke mishneh, Rut Domenits, M. Hameiri;... Mahad. hadashah murhevet. [Tel Aviv]: Etav-bet hotsaah le-or, 2003, c1998.

Doe Refe BS440.M53 2003

An encyclopedic dictionary of the Bible. Contains historical citations and detailed definitions of words and expression appearing in the Tanakh (Hebrew Bible) in Hebrew. Includes every word in the Bible, both Hebrew and Aramaic, place names, personalities and expressions.

Social Sciences

Social Sciences

Moffitt Refe GN496.E56 2003

Historical overviews of current worldwide ethnic conflicts are presented in encyclopedia style articles. Beginning with a timetable, articles include a discussion of the historical background, the conflict itself, its management and its significance. Also included are suggestions for further readings. Included in this reference work are articles dealing with several nationalist movements worldwide. Includes an index.

Two volume set provides extensive encyclopedia articles on all aspects of world terrorism from 1996-2002, along with historical documents from throughout history. The first volume is divided into three sections: 21st century terrorism and the September 11th attacks, global terrorism 1996-2002, and the future trends in terrorism and counterterrorism. The second volume provides a compilation of historical documents from the age of antiquity to the present, beginning with A.D. 75 and ending in 2002. Includes a chronology of major events from 1945-2002, a glossary and general index.

Four volume set of lengthy articles surveying all manner of topics in popular culture. Popular culture may be briefly described as "all the experiences in life shared by people in common, generally, though not necessarily disseminated by the mass media." The first article provides a thorough discussion of "the study of popular culture," providing further analysis of the definition and then an overview of themes. A small sample of articles includes almanacs, amusement parks and fairs, big little books, dance, death, gardening, graffiti, jazz, magic and magicians, new age movements, propaganda, science fiction, trains and railroading and westerns. Each article contains an extensive bibliography. The set ends with a comprehensive index.

Extensive collection of encyclopedia articles on information and library science, many with suggestions for further reading. Covers key terms and topics in the field, especially good in coverage of new and burgeoning technologies. Several articles provide overviews for broad geographic areas, others provide discussion of different types of libraries (e.g. ecclesiastical, map, music, and private libraries). Includes indexing.

A chronological listing of all major terrorist activities from 1996 through 2001. Extensive attention is given to the events of September 11, 2001, including names of all that lost their lives that day and later as a result of their injuries. Brief biographical information is provided when available. Also included are updates to incidents covered in previous editions for the same compiler for the period 1969-1995. Contains a bibliography by region and special topics. Indices are by county, date, name and subject.