2. Develop strategies for collecting and highlighting marginalized voices within STEM - S. Teplitzky and L. Ngo.

S. Teplitzky presented work that she and L. Ngo have been doing to develop strategies for addressing DEIBJ in STEM collections, outreach and instruction, as a preliminary step towards fulfilling an EPS Division goal for this year. After holding conversations with faculty and students, as well as librarians at Berkeley and other institutions, they have drafted an outline of potential strategies which was shared with the group. A wide-ranging discussion followed. R. Eardley-Pryor expressed interest in collaborating with librarians and departments on oral history projects related to DEIBJ in STEM.

3. Updates to Library Free Resources Guide - M. Sholinbeck

M. Sholinbeck is seeking suggestions for additions to (or removals from) the Freely Available Resources for Research: Sciences guide to keep it fresh.
